Financial Services Guide

About this Financial Services Guide (FSG)

Shaw and Partners Financial Planning Pty Ltd ABN 66 612 483 619 (“ShawFP”) is a Corporate Authorised Representative (001255809) of Shaw and Partners Ltd.

Shaw and Partners Limited is an Australian Financial Services Licensee (No. 236048) on whose behalf we are authorised to provide personal financial product advice and to arrange and deal in financial products.

This means that when we, ShawFP, provide you with advice or services, or when we help you make investments or purchase products, we are doing it as their representative. Shaw and Partners Limited is the parent company of ShawFP. You can find more information about them, and obtain their FSG, from their website (www.shawandpartners.com.au).

The purpose of this document

This Financial Service Guide is designed to assist you to decide whether to use any of the services we offer. It will provide you with important information about:

- Who we are and how to contact us
- How you can instruct us
- The products and services we offer
- Any associations, interests or relationships that might influence the advice or services we provide
- How we are paid for the services we provide
- The documents you may receive from us
- How we use and secure your personal information
- How you can provide us with feedback or get help if you have a problem

This FSG is comprised of two separate documents. Part A provides information about ShawFP and our authorising licensee. Part B provides specific information about your adviser.

Shaw and Partners Limited have authorised us to distribute this FSG.

In this FSG we refer to Shaw and Partners Financial Planning Limited as “ShawFP”, “the company”, “we”, “us” and “our”.

This FSG was issued on 17 August 2017. We will update our FSG from time to time to provide you with information about new services or changes to existing services. We will publish these changes on our website at www.shawandpartners.com.au. You acknowledge that you will be bound by any changes 7 days after publication, and you will review Shaw’s current FSG prior to undertaking any transaction in financial products.

About Shaw and Partners

Our parent, Shaw and Partners, is a participant of ASX Limited (ASX) and Chi-X Australia Pty Limited (Chi-X), which provides Shaw and Partners with direct access to transact in listed securities on your behalf. Shaw is a Sponsoring Broker in the Clearing House Electronic Subregister System (CHESS) operated by ASX Settlement Pty Limited. From time to time, Shaw may become a participant of other exchanges. To better understand their activities and services please visit www.shawandpartners.com.au.

What services can we provide?

Advice

ShawFP provides a range of tailored financial planning solutions to our clients, depending on their individual needs. We are authorised by Shaw and Partners Limited to provide our clients with both personal and general advice. We are also authorised to execute your instructions and arrange investments, placements and product purchases on your behalf.

In addition to services which you might receive from Shaw and Partners, ShawFP can provide you with personal advice on, and arrange transactions in the following products:

- Fixed interest products
- Managed investment schemes including master trusts
- Retirement Savings Accounts
- Annuities and pensions
- Superannuation (including self-managed superannuation funds)

Shaw and Partners Financial Planning can develop a financial plan which can include:

- Asset Allocation
- Investments in securities, derivatives, listed products (this will be provided by Shaw and Partners or another provider of your choosing, not by Shaw and Partners Financial Planning)
- Managed Funds
- Superannuation
- Gearing
- Wealth protection and insurance, through the use of income protection, trauma, TPD and life insurance (this can be provided by an external specialist insurance adviser)
- Retirement planning
- Redundancy/early retirement

Your financial planner will formulate an appropriate advice and then provide you with a Statement of Advice. While your financial planner may consider taxation, legal and estate planning implications, we are not specialists in these areas and you should seek further advice, as relevant, from an appropriate specialist.

Where you require advice on shares, derivatives, capital raisings, margin lending or market related products we will refer you to Shaw and Partners and they will provide you with advice on these topics under their own licence.

Should you require insurance advice, ShawFP will refer you to a qualified external specialist provider of insurance advice. Shaw selects partners that have demonstrable experience and proven capability to provide the risk advice. We are confident that their approach will complement ours and that they will deliver solutions tailored to your needs. Where Shaw ShawFP provides you with a referral to such a partner, ShawFP and your ShawFP financial planner will receive a referral payment and this will be clearly disclosed in their Statement of Advice.

Should you accept the recommendations contained within the Statement of Advice, we will then assist you with the implementation of the recommendations.

ShawFP also provides you with an ongoing advisory relationship and associated services. Where you elect to retain our services on an ongoing basis, we will ensure that your investment strategy remains relevant to your changing situation, legislative changes and market developments.

Dealing

Shaw FP can also arrange for the acquisition or disposal of financial products on your behalf. While not every recommendation we make will be implemented by ShawFP on your behalf, we will typically arrange for the implementation of most aspects of the advice that we provide.

Your financial planner

Your financial planner is authorised to provide the services outlined in this FSG, when the advice is provided in conjunction with ShawFP. Your financial planner is also an authorised representative of Shaw, authorised to provide some or all of the services provided by Shaw and Partners as outlined in Shaw and Partners' FSG. This means, some of the services you receive from your financial planner may be supplied on behalf of Shaw and Partners, and others may be supplied on behalf of Shaw FP. Any advice or transactional service that relates to shares, derivatives, capital raisings, margin lending or market related products will be given to you by your financial planner in their capacity as an authorised representative of Shaw and Partners. If you are in any doubt as to what capacity your financial planner is acting in, please contact Shaw Compliance on +61 2 9238 1238 or compliance@shawandpartners.com.au.

Your financial planner is an independent contractor to Shaw (as opposed to an employee of Shaw). Your financial planner may be a company, with sub-authorised representatives, or an individual. Your financial planner's details are set out in your Statement of Advice. If you do not have a financial planner, please contact Shaw so that we may introduce you to one of our experienced professionals.

If you already own financial products, your financial planner can review your holdings and help you decide whether those financial products are appropriate having regard to your personal circumstances. If you do not already own financial products, your financial planner can help design an investment portfolio to suit your personal circumstances.

From 1 July 2014, regulations require your financial planner to declare whether they are a registered tax (financial) adviser or not, hence whether they are authorised to provide tax (financial) advice. We recommend that you seek independent legal and tax advice about our recommendations and confirm any entitlement to government benefits with the relevant department.

You are responsible for monitoring the performance of your investments as well as ensuring that your investments continue to be appropriate for you given your personal circumstances. You should contact your financial planner if you require assistance.

Instructing us

You can instruct us to proceed with your advice by providing us with a signed Authority to Proceed or by providing us with your instructions in another manner, as agreed. Please note, that instructions in relation to shares, derivatives, capital raisings, margin lending or market related products will be received by your financial planner in his capacity as an authorised representative of Shaw and Partners, not ShawFP. Such instructions can be given in person, by telephone, facsimile, post or email. Please note that instructions sent by facsimile, post or email will not be deemed to be received until your Shaw and Partners' adviser has confirmed their receipt in writing.

Documents you can expect to receive

In addition to this FSG, you may also receive a Statement of Advice and a Product Disclosure Statement. The circumstances in which these documents will be provided are set out below.

Statement of Advice (SOA)

If we provide you with personal advice in relation to a financial product or service, you will receive either a SOA or a Record of Advice (ROA).

The purpose of an SOA is to help you understand, and decide whether to rely on, personal advice. The SOA will set out the advice, the basis on which it was given and information about fees, commissions and any relationships we have with third parties that may have influenced the advice.

If there is any change in your personal circumstances after an initial SOA has been provided, you should immediately notify your financial planner so that an updated SOA can be provided.

If you are an ongoing advice client, we may rely on the information we already have about your personal circumstances and issue you with an ROA instead of issuing another SOA. In any event, should you wish to receive a written record of the advice we provided to you, simply ask us and we will provide a copy to you without charge.

You may also receive an SOA from Shaw and Partners in relation to products and services you will receive from Shaw and Partners.

Product Disclosure Statement (PDS)

If your financial planner recommends certain types of financial products, your financial planner will give you a PDS which has been issued by or on behalf of the product issuer. The main purpose of a PDS is to help you make an informed choice about a financial product. A PDS will contain general information about the product, including the terms and conditions for the product, any significant benefits and risks associated with holding the product and information about the cost of the product. The PDS is designed to assist you to understand the financial product, its risks and benefits and its fees and charges. If you read the PDS and still have questions, please speak to us and we will try to help.

Investment risks

Financial products can rise or fall in value. The measure of this change in value is often referred to as volatility. The more volatile the asset, the greater the likelihood of significant gains or losses.

Any financial product may incur daily price changes, as new information becomes available to investors. The market is constantly evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of each financial product in relation to various risk factors. To view all of the risks associated with an investment in shares, derivatives, capital raisings, margin lending or market related products, please view Shaw and Partners' FSG and Shaw's PDS for Exchange Traded Options and Low Exercise Price Options available at www.shawandpartners.com.au.

To review the risks associated with other investment products recommended by your ShawFP adviser, please review the PDS associated with the relevant product, and your SOA.

Costs and conflicts

ShawFP is owned by Shaw and Partners Limited, our authorising licensee.

This relationship creates a potential conflict of interests, particularly when you require advice or services in respect of shares, derivatives, capital raisings, margin lending or market related products. As professional advisers, we have an obligation to act in your best interests, to avoid conflicts and to prioritise your interests. Your financial planner may refer you to other parties where you are interested in receiving their services, or where your financial planner considers that their advice or other services may be useful for you (third party providers). ShawFP may receive a referral fee where you decide to receive services from third party providers.

Shaw may charge brokerage, commission or a fee depending upon the services that are provided. Shaw may also pay or receive other fees in relation to services supplied to you, but which are not payable by you. All fees are subject to change. All fees are exclusive of GST and an amount equal to the amount of the GST is payable by you at the same time as the fee is due (currently 10%). The fees payable in relation to services provided by Shaw and Partners are set out in its FSG, and you should review those fees in conjunction with those set out in this FSG.

General disclosure

Shaw, its financial planners, their associates, respective officers and employees may have a pecuniary or other interest in financial products which you purchase or sell and may earn fees from dealing in financial products you purchase or sell as outlined in this FSG or as advised to you from time to time.

Fees, costs and charges: Financial planning

Although we receive the majority of our remuneration directly from our clients, we do receive indirect remuneration from some products and some referral parties. Your financial planner will also receive a percentage of this indirect remuneration. We are required to act in your best interests, so our recommendations will be motivated by your needs and not the remuneration we may receive. Any remuneration we may receive will be clearly disclosed in the Statement of Advice provided to you. By providing an Authority to Proceed, you will be consenting to the payment of this remuneration.

If Shaw and Partners, or financial planner receives a minor non-monetary benefit of between $100 and $300, or a contribution toward the cost of professional development, the benefit will be noted in a register. Should you wish to see this register, please contact us.

How is my personal information used and secured

We are required to collect certain information about you for the purpose of providing you with the services described in this FSG.

As a financial service provider, we have an obligation under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Finance Act 2006 to verify your identity and the source of any funds. This means that we will ask you to present identification documents such as your passport or driver licence. We will also retain copies of this information.

In the course of providing advice and other services to you, we will need to supply your information to third parties.

The privacy of your personal information is important to us. Presently, telephone conversations with your adviser are not recorded however, if this changes, you will be notified. For details of Shaw's Privacy Policy please go to www.shawandpartners.com.au or ask your adviser for a copy.
